

How to Fix (and Prevent) the Most Common Travel Beauty Problems — From Sunburn to Dry Skin

Under Eye Concealer

“The best way to address the post-plane puffy eye issue is threefold. When you board, remove any makeup (makeup wipe suggestions below) first thing...once your skin is clear, do an eye mask...treat yourself to a little facial massage using a roller. If you still feel like you need a concealer, try the top-rated Glo Skin Beauty, which features two hydrating, blendable hues.”
