

Bold Red Lips

When lips took on a darker red cast, like at Naeem Khan, a glossy sheen gave the color a spring-ready boost. When painted pouts appeared in a brighter crimson shade, like at Badgley Mischka and Temperley London, a satin matte finish tempered the vivid hue. In most cases, layering colors and finishes boosted dimension—a technique you can pass on to your clients. Teach them the secret to Maybelline makeup lead Erin Parsons' rosebud lip seen at Naeem Khan: After stacking two creamy matte lipsticks for a pigment-locking base, she added a thick layer of bright red gloss with a dab of darker red smack-dab in the middle of the mouth to conjure a gorgeous 3D plumping effect.
