You should already know the holidays are our favorite time of year (outside of Fashion Week). There's something about shopping and the swipe of a credit card that has us in an amazing mood. What better way to spend your money this holiday than on some great gifts that will last throughout the year, like makeup.

This year, Glo Skin Beauty is offering amazing eyeshadow sets that go right in trend with winter makeup trends. The holiday eyeshadow gifts set are part of their Mosaic Collection, which celebrates individuality with a variety of interchangeable color assortments that deliver singular accents to modern pairings. Shimmers

You can't have the holidays without Shimmering eyeshadow. This is a holiday staple look and just as the Christmas lights are glittering, so will your highlighter and eyeshadow! If you're looking for a shimmer this holiday season to give as a gift, metallics have been a growing fave over the past couple of years and continue to be no exception this season.
